Here's your chance to spot the Lincoln Mystery Plays' distinctive mini barons in the Bailgate area and WIN a family ticket for our show in August!

In keeping with the Plays' origins as an entertaining way of bringing Bible verses to the masses of the Medieval city hundreds of years ago, the mini barons will be dressed as characters from Plays.

There are 13 to spot in shops, pubs, cafes and the Cathedral shop, By locating them all, you can win one of three family tickets, plus a mini baron! The Mysteries Mini Barons Trail runs from May 30 until July 11 and winners will be notified on July 18.

It is supported by Lincoln BIG and the Bailgate Guild of Traders - a modern day successor the the Medieval Guilds of tradesmen who historically put on the plays.

While looking in the Cathedral Shop for their baron, why not take a minute to buy your tickets for one of for the nine nights in the Cathedral Cloisters from August 3 to 13.

The Lincoln Mystery Plays are a very rare, unusual and special form of theatre - returning to the City this summer!

They tell the stories of the Bible through the eyes of ordinary Medieval folk as a way of making sense of the mysteries of scripture for the man in the street.

As a result, they are full of humour, humanity and humility in a potent mix of faith, fun and familiarity.

They are deeply rooted in Lincoln's heritage, but were 'lost' from the City for hundreds of years until they were re-discovered and resurrected in the 1960s.

Now, the Lincoln Mystery Plays Trust breathes fresh life into them every four years, making them a must-see event this summer.

Performed outdoors, over nine nights from August 3 to 13, in the Cathedral Cloisters, this is a unique chance to be a part of history and to discover something new.

Tickets: £15, £13 and £49 for a family available online at www.lincolnmysteries.co.uk or in person at Lincoln Cathedral Shop
